

Your Work Talents Report

Nikki Evans' Unique Style: Initiator

Initiators like to take bold, aggressive actions and create the rules. They will prefer to lead decision-making, setting the agenda for others to follow and monitoring the timely completion of tasks. They are goal driven people who like their expectations managed and not to get caught up in unnecessary details. Their decision-making will typically be fast-paced and rational. They will not be afraid to take on challenging assignments or to accept a lot of risks to realize their ambition.

Your Top Talents:

Based on your 8 factor scores, your 2 strongest scores (traits) are:

- Spontaneous - Free-flowing, high level approach, instinctive

Your Financial Behavior Report

Nikki Evans: Initiator

Provided by your advisor: Chris Coddington

Initiators like to take bold, aggressive actions and create the rules.

Your Financial Behavior

Your results show that you take a balanced approach to money. This means you're fine with taking some calculated risks to make some gains, but prefer not to put all your eggs in one basket.

Your Behavioral Biases

These biases may get in the way of wise decision making. Your advisor will discuss strategies to help you manage your instincts in your financial plan.

Newness Bias - Likely to give more weight to recent information and ideas.

Instinctive - In adversity tends to make decisions quickly and emotionally based on instinct.

Your keys to adopting a plan

- Allow me plenty of freedom
- Use graphics and verbal communications
- Expect/encourage my out-of-the-box thinking

The Importance of Understanding Your Financial Behavior

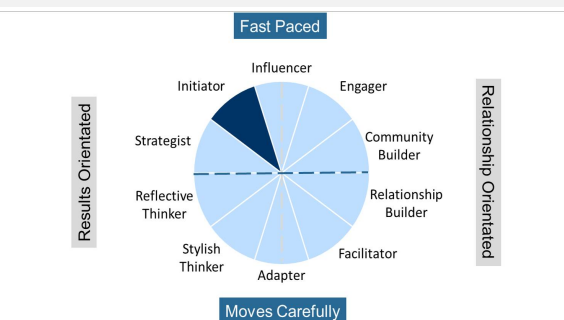

For advisors to provide valuable advice, it is key that they understand you and your goals. Measuring and discussing your financial behavior is a first step for your advisor to get to know you. Your financial behavior describes how you make decisions around money, your communication style, how you react to market events, and what motivates you to achieve your goals. These elements help drive a financial plan that is appropriate and custom for you.

Other factors may influence the investment strategy that is ideal for you such as;

- Amount of time you planned to achieve your goals
- Risk and return required to achieve your financial goals.
- Experiences such as education, upbringing, and life lessons that may have changed your approach to finances throughout your lifetime.
